

Lewis Saltz Chair In Surgery Endowed At School of Medicine

Dr. Blades Is Named To Post

An endowment made by the Lewis Saltz Medical Foundation established a "Lewis Saltz Chair in Surgery" at the University's School of Medicine, this fall. The Foundation was created by the will of the late Lewis Saltz, prominent Washington, D. C. merchant, who died in 1958. Mr. Saltz and his widow, Mrs. Elaine Saltz, have both contributed much time and leadership talent to civic interests and have shown a long-time interest in the University's medical program.

Mrs. Saltz, one of the Foundation's board of managers, states that in her opinion this endowment can well fulfill the purpose of the Foundation which was created to promote medical knowledge and "the application of such knowledge to the benefit of mankind."

Dr. Brian Blades, Chairman of the Department of Surgery and a member of the University's medical faculty since 1946, was named Lewis Saltz Professor of Surgery. In receiving the announcement, he said, "I am honored to occupy this Chair of Surgery which will pay tribute to the memory of Lewis Saltz."

Dr. John Parks, Dean of the School of Medicine, said that, "We are very pleased that the Saltz Foundation has selected the Department of Surgery of The George Washington University to perpetuate the high ideals of Lewis Saltz for the promotion and maintenance of medical education and research."

President Carroll, expressed "deep appreciation" for this demonstration of interest in the University's School of Medicine.

(See Photo on Page 4)

INCOMING AND OUTGOING FUND CHAIRMEN CONFER

Frederick P. H. Siddons (right), General Chairman of the 1961 Alumni Fund Campaign, discusses plans for the 1962 Alumni Fund with Frances G. Addison, III, who will serve as General Chairman for next year's Alumni Fund Campaign, and who is Vice Chairman of this year's Fund.

Both Mr. Siddons and Mr. Addison stress that alumni giving can be a key factor in strengthening the financial position of the University.

The Fund Chairmen request that alumni who have not yet contributed to this year's Fund, mail their contributions before the end of this Fund year, which is December 31.

Frederick P. H. Siddons, Senior Vice President of the American-Security and Trust Company of Washington, D. C., holds degrees from the University of Wisconsin and from the National Law School, which merged with The George Washington University in 1954.

Francis G. Addison, III, is Vice President of the Union Trust Company of the District of Columbia and received his BS from Washington and Lee University, and his LLB from The George Washington University Law School.

What's New in Your University . . .

Sponsored jointly by the University's National Law Center and Federal Publications, Inc., a two-day conference on current problems and developments in U. S. Government construction contracting was held in Washington in November.

"Fuel to the Fire," a color motion picture on the nation's patent system, was released by the University's Patent, Trademark, and Copyright Foundation, this fall. The film, produced by Washington Video Productions under the supervision of the Foundation, is part of the Foundation's public education program and will be made available to educational institutions, television stations, businesses and other interested organizations for showings throughout the country.

HONORARY NATIONAL CHAIRMAN OF THE '62 FUND

Robert Daniel Murphy, President of Corning Glass International, New York, New York, has been named to serve as Honorary National Chairman of the 1962 Alumni Fund Campaign. Mr. Murphy, distinguished career diplomat who served in the U. S. Foreign Service from 1921 through 1959, was at the time of his retirement Under Secretary of State for Political Affairs. He received the Bachelor of Laws from the University in 1920, and the Master of Laws in 1928. Mr. Murphy holds honorary degrees from The George Washington University, Marquette University, and Harvard University.

Executive Urges Better Understanding Between Business and Government

An appeal for better communication between Government and business so that they can better realize mutual goals was issued by Mark W. Cresap, Jr., President of Westinghouse Electric Corporation. He spoke at a dinner meeting jointly sponsored by the University's School of Government, Business, and International Affairs and the Harvard Business School Club of Washington in the University's Lisner Auditorium, last month.

"Government is not the enemy of business; business is not the enemy of Government . . . their interests are intertwined for industry is at the threshold of development that would contribute greatly to the nation's living standards, to national defense, and to the progress of underprivileged peoples around the world," Mr. Cresap pointed out.

This mutual interest should eliminate the "antagonism and disdain for almost everything governmental which is felt by some businessmen. They may prefer an era when Government left business alone, but they cannot resurrect that era. And I would not resurrect it if I could," he asserted. On the other hand, "Politicians have a responsibility to resist blanket and intemperate attacks on business for political effect."

Arguing against attacks made on corporations simply because they are "big,"

Mr. Cresap pointed out that the demands of modern economy and technology require large aggregates of capital, labor, and equipment.

"Bigness" is counter to the public interest only when it approaches a monopoly position or when its power is used unfairly. He described the anti-trust laws, conscientiously enforced, as "basically good for business," helpful in preventing monopoly, and a device to achieve "effective competitive vigor." At the same time he pointed out that identical prices are not evidence per se of wrongdoing.

Private enterprise has changed so that business today is touched with a large public responsibility—managers have responsibility to stockholders, to employees, consumers, and suppliers.

"As a result," he said, "it has been inevitable that the people through their Government would assume a larger influence over the economic units which so broadly affect them."

FALL CONVOCATION BRINGS SMILES AND HONORS: (left to right) President Thomas H. Carroll; Miss Helena Z. Benitez, AM 39, Executive Vice President of the Philippine Women's University, Manila; Benjamin C. Willis, AB 22, Superintendent of Chicago Public Schools; and J. Frank Doubleday, President of the General Alumni Association.

Miss Benitez and Dr. Willis received Alumni Achievement awards. Miss Benitez has received many awards and medals for her service to education in the Philippines and she is a member of the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women. Dr. Willis is one of the highest paid public school officials in the United States.

Faculty Notes

Dr. Halla Brown, Associate Clinical Professor of Medicine, who has made significant research contributions to immunization for bee and wasp venoms, received a three-year grant of $60,720 from the Hartford Foundation for "Studies on Insect Allergies — a Special Reference to the Hymenoptera." . . . President Thomas H. Carroll was elected to the board of directors of two Washington, D. C. firms this fall: the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Co., and Peoples Drug Stores, Inc. . . . J. Reuben Clark, Jr., Assistant Professor of Law, 1907-08, and an Ambassador to Mexico during the Hoover Administration, died October 6 in Salt Lake City at the age of 90. . . .

Dr. John Clayton, Associate Professor of Business Administration, has been named editor of The Transportation Journal of the American Society of Traffic and Transportation. . . .

Dr. Oswald S. Colclough, Provost and Dean of Faculties, and Dr. Waldo Sommers, Associate Professor of Public Administration, attended the annual meeting of the Armed Forces Management Association in Chicago where Provost Colclough moderated the Education Section and Dr. Sommers was a guest speaker. . . .

Dr. Meredith P. Crawford, Director of the Human Resources Research Office (HumRRO), was presented the Distinguished Civilian Service Medal by Secretary of the Army Elvis J. Stahr, Jr., for ". . . conduct of significant studies in the fields of training, motivation, leadership, and man-weapon analysis. . . ." The medal is the highest decoration awarded by the Secretary of the Army to non-career civilian personnel. . . . One of a series of 19 lectures on the biological sciences, translated for broadcast abroad by the Voice of America, is a lecture on "Cell Division" by Dr. William R. Duryee, who is a member of the Council of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and the University's Research Professor of Pathology. . . .

(Continued on Page 5)

PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY was welcomed into the ranks of Washington Touchdowners Club this fall when TD President Andy Davis BS 52 (second from left), former star of the Colonials and back with the Redskins, presented him with a gold honorary lifetime membership card in ceremonies in the President's White House office. In addition, a gold charm bracelet with a miniature "Timmy," the TD Club's symbol, was presented to the President for his daughter, Caroline, by TD Vice President George Neumann, Ex 47, (left). The Club is dedicated to promotion of the best interests of football and the provision of medical nursing and hospital care for members of Washington high school and sandlot teams who may be injured while playing football.

Football Season Leaves Hope for Future

by Bill Dismar

Although the record will show a losing season for George Washington's 1961 football team, close followers of the grid Colonials know that, with a little luck, Jim Camp might have had a winning team in his first year as our Head Coach.

Of the five defeats suffered through November 4, only one was by more than a touchdown. Boston University's team, out-weighting GW by 10 pounds to the man, overpowered us by a 14-point margin. Our other losses were all by less than 10 points: Florida State winning 15-7, Furman 13-9, Richmond 16-15, and West Virginia 12-7. In view of the latter's 20-6 rout of Pitt and 7-3 upset of Army, George Washington's 5-point setback doesn't look too bad.

As these lines are being written, Virginia Tech has yet to be played (November 17) in a game which will end the season. If recent history prevails, it will be a win for GW as Tech has beaten us on the gridiron only once in the last eight years.

Colonials, Inc.
ANNUAL SPORTS DINNER
April 18, 1961
KENWOOD COUNTRY CLUB
Reserve this date

Basketball Preview

The return of Jon Feldman's twin brother, Jeff, and a promising crop of sophomores augur well for George Washington's chances to retain the Southern Conference basketball championship it won last year.

GW opened its season on December 1 against Virginia Tech at the renovated Washington Coliseum (nee Uline's Arena). It will play two other games this season at that site, using the gym at Fort Myer for its other eight "home" games. Maryland and West Virginia will be met at the renovated Coliseum while Davidson, VMI, Georgetown, Richmond, Furman, Virginia, The Citadel, and William & Mary will be played at Fort Myer. The Colonials also will visit Maryland and Georgetown for games.

George Washington also has been in-

LISNER SCHEDULE

Date	Performance
Dec. 8, 8:00 p.m.	Opera—Magic Flute
Dec. 10, 8:00 p.m.	Opera—Magic Flute
Dec. 11, 8:00 p.m.	Opera—Magic Flute
Dec. 16, 8:30 p.m.	Glee Club Concert— Princeton Triangle Club
Dec. 21, 8:00 p.m.	Lecture—American Philosophical Society
Dec. 22, 8:00 p.m.	Lecture—American Philosophical Society
Jan. 5, 8:30 p.m.	Hal Holbrook as Mark Twain
Jan. 6, 8:30 p.m.	Hal Holbrook
Jan. 7, 8:30 p.m.	Hal Holbrook
Jan. 11, 2:00 p.m.	National Symphony— Pierre Monteux, Guest Conductor
Jan. 13, 8:30 p.m.	French Ballet— Friday Morning Music Club
Jan. 19, 8:00 p.m.	Opera—Oedipus Rex— Opera Society of Washington
Jan. 20, 8:30 p.m.	Julian Bream— Friday Morning Music Club
Jan. 21, 5:30 p.m.	Opera— Opera Society of Washington
Jan. 22, 8:00 p.m.	Opera—
Jan. 23, 8:30 p.m.	French Theatre— Friday Morning Music Club
Jan. 25, 2:00 p.m.	National Symphony— Byron Janis, Pianist
Feb. 1, 2:00 p.m.	National Symphony— Isaac Stern, Violinist
Feb. 3, 8:30 p.m.	José Limón— Friday Morning Music Club
Feb. 12, 8:30 p.m.	Dancers of Bali— Friday Morning Music Club
Feb. 16, 8:30 p.m.	Dance Contest— Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

vited to participate in the four-team tournament which the University of Richmond will sponsor on December 29-30. Georgetown and VMI will be the other contenders.

The complete schedule:

December: 1 — Virginia Tech; 6 — St. John's at Brooklyn; 9 — William & Mary at Williamsburg; 11 — Davidson; 14 — VMI; 16 — Richmond; 29 & 30 — Richmond invitational tournament.

January: 3 — Maryland; 6 — Georgetown; 9 — Richmond; 13 — West Virginia; 16 — at Maryland; 20 — at Georgetown; 31 — at VMI.

February: 3 — Furman; 5 — Virginia; 10 — at West Virginia; 12 — at Cincinnati; 16 — The Citadel; 20 — William & Mary; 23 — at Virginia Tech.

March: 1-3 — Southern Conference tournament, at Richmond.

Following are some recent publications by GW alumni and faculty.

Dr. Robert F. Griggs, Emeritus Professor of Botany — We Two Together: The Boxwood Press, Box 7171, Pittsburgh, 1961. An account of Dr. Griggs' professional career including botanical and geological explorations made by Dr. and Mrs. Griggs' and an engaging description of their family life.

J. E. Hamilton, Senior Scientist, Logistics Research Project (Navy)—Shipboard Environment of Logistics and also a series of eight research papers on Experience in Data Collection: Naval Logistics Research Program. GWU, 1960-1961.

L. James Harris, Professorial Lecturer in Law, and Irving H. Siegel — Evolving Court Opinion on Patent Licensing: An Interaction of Positive Competition and the Law: Summer 1961 issue of the Patent, Trademark, and Copyright Journal of Research and Education, Summer 1961.

Dr. Ruth Kerr Jakoby, Clinical Instructor in Neurological Surgery — The Use of a Methylmethacrylate Seal in

Spinal Fluid Otorrhea and Rhinorrhea: Journal of Neurosurgery, Sept. 1961.

Dr. John W. Kendrick, Professor of Economics — Changing Output-Input Relations within the National Economic Accounts: Naval Research Logistics Quarterly, Dec. 1960. Also by Dr. Kendrick—Productivity Trends in the United States: National Bureau of Economic Research, N. Y., Oct. 1961. This study points out that advance in productivity has been a major factor in American economic growth during the last 40 years.

Dr. James C. King, Associate Professor of German — Peter Hat Pech!: Holt, Rinehart and Winston, N. Y., 1961. 103+lxiii pp. A narrative with German exercise materials for intermediate students of German. Tape recordings are being prepared for this book.

Gordon M. Kline, AM 26 — Twenty-five Years of Progress in Plastics: Modern Plastics Journal, N. Y., Sept. 1961.

Dr. Anthony J. Lanza, MD 06, member of the advisory editorial board for Communicable Diseases Transmitted through Contact or by Unknown Means, Vol. V, in the series, "History of the Medical Department, U. S. Army, in World War II": Army Medical Service, Historical Unit, Washington, D. C., Aug. 1961.

Dr. H. George Mandel, Professor of Pharmacology—What Do Medical Students Learn About Drugs?: The American Professional Pharmacist, Sept. 1961.

(Continued on Page 7)

MRS. ELAINE SALTZ whose keen interest in community welfare recently found expression in the endowment of the Lewis Saltz Chair in Surgery, established through the Saltz Medical Foundation which was created by the will of her husband, the late Lewis Saltz. Mrs. Saltz' civic interests extend, also, to international affairs. She has served with Pauline Fredrick in public relations work for the United Nations.

(See Story on Page 1)

Grant Paves Way For New Technique in Science

A grant of $2,500 from the American Machine and Foundry Company to the University will be used for research in a new method for measuring blood flow.

The study will be conducted by Clifford D. Ferris, Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering at the University, who will work with the relatively new technique of "magnetic resonance," which he believes will provide a more accurate measurement of the flow of blood than earlier techniques.

The use of magnetic resonance may prove valuable in the future, since in contrast to previous methods, its use does not require the severance or exposure of a blood vessel.

CONGRATULATED BY TWO PRESIDENTS — F. Elwood Davis, LLB 43 (center), recipient of the 1961 Cosmopolitan Club Distinguished Service Medal Award for his work in helping bring District residents the right to vote for President, is congratulated by President Thomas H. Carroll (left) and Dr. John B. Marbury, President of the Cosmopolitan Club of Washington. Mr. Davis is the University's General Counsel, a partner in the law firm of Reasoner and Davis, member of the Advisory Board of Riggs National Bank, and a Director of Potomac Savings and Loan Association.

Pioneer Driver Research Ready for "Road Test" This Month

A pilot study of the effectiveness of a self-teaching traffic safety manual will be conducted in the D. C. Department of Motor Vehicles beginning this month, according to Dr. Lawrence Schlesinger, Professor of Psychology and Director of the University's Driver Behavior Research Project.

Effectiveness of the manual will be tested in the D. C. Driver Safety Clinic on drivers who find their licenses revoked or suspended under the District's point system.

The trail-blazing psychological research is being carried out under the terms of a three-year $270,000 grant to the University from the National Institute of Mental Health. It was begun in 1960 under the direction of Dr. Thelma Hunt, Professor of Psychology and Chairman of the Psychology Department.

The self-teaching manual is a variation of the automatic instruction technique developed by Dr. Schlesinger's staff.

The self instruction program will cover rules of the road, and will also attempt to change the attitude of poor drivers by increasing their sense of social responsibility and awareness of the factors contributing to dangerous driving.

Drivers will be taught to view traffic signs, signals and markings—not as obstacles in their path, but as guides and aids enabling them to drive safely and comfortably.

The program will also teach drivers to recognize and be aware of those distracting social and personal conditions which increase the possibility of accidents, such as: family quarrels, worry about one's job, talking with passengers in the car, and financial difficulties.

"We can't keep a person from worrying about his job, but we can teach him to become aware of the fact that worrying will increase his chances of having an accident," commented Dr. Schlesinger.

Dr. Schlesinger added that, if successful, the self-teaching book can serve in pre-licensing preparation of new drivers and in the rehabilitation of problem drivers who have lost their licenses. It may also become available to other state driver licensing agencies.

GAA Host to Air Force And Navy Officers

The General Alumni Association was host to members of the Air Force Advanced Management Program and of the Navy Graduate Comptrollership Program at a luncheon in the Alumni Center in November. The Air Force and Naval officers were greeted on arrival by G.A.A. President J. Frank Doubleday; Dr. John F. Latimer, Associate Dean of the Faculties; Dr. A. M. Woodruff, Dean, School of Government, Business, and International Affairs; Dr. A. Rex Johnson, Director of the Navy Program; and Dr. Waldo Sommers, Coordinator of the Air Force Program. President Thomas H. Carroll spoke briefly, expressing the pleasure of the University in having the officers in attendance.

These two programs are part of the curriculum of the School of Government, Business, and International Affairs. They bring military executives and managers to the GW campus for a heavy schedule of full-time study throughout a calendar year. Included are numerous field trips and conferences with outstanding leaders of business and government.

FACULTY NOTES: Cont. from Page 2

Dr. John L. Finan, Deputy Director of the Human Resources Research Office, received a Certificate of Appreciation from Lt. Gen. Arthur G. Trudeau, Chief of Army Research and Development, in recognition of his ten years' service in effective utilization of HumRRO's research findings by the Army. The presentation was made shortly before Dr. Finan's departure in August to accept a new position in Berkeley with the California State Department of Public Health. . . . Dr. Burnice H. Jarman, Professor of Education on leave of absence as branch chief of the higher education division for the United States Mission to Korea, has been awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Letters from Ewha Women's University in Seoul, the world's largest women's university. Dr. Jarman, the second man to receive a degree from Ewha, was cited by the Korean institution as a "renowned educator, administration expert, and writer, through whose profound wisdom and counselling Korean educators have been able to see beyond immediate problems and needs to broader and more necessary goals."

Washington Post Photo

GW ALUMNA HONORED BY BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUBS — Gathered at the D. C. Federation of B and PW Clubs luncheon in October are (left to right) Doris G. Wilkins, BS in Ph Ed 32, LLB Natl 48, who was named "Professional Woman of the Year"; Federation President Gertrude F. Strobe, Ruth Smith Green, "Business Woman of the Year"; and Phillis J. Groverman, who was chairman of the event. Miss Wilkins was honored for her accomplishments and devotion to her profession — social service. She is a Consultant to the D. C. Department of Public Welfare on Housing and Service to Displaced Families.

GWU Chair

Captain's Model
with GWU Seal — $29.00

Child's Model —
Chair or Rocker — $20.00

Orders for Christmas deliveries must be made by December 1

GAA Glass Ash Tray for Office or Home

University Seal in Gold
$1.00 Postpaid

Order through Alumni Office
2000 H Street, N.W.
Washington 6, D. C.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY CLASS REUNION

THE GOLDEN JUBILEE CLASS OF 1911 was honored at a dinner at the Statler Hotel. Homecoming weekend. Seated left to right: Dr. Charles Benjamin Gass, PHAR D 11, and Mrs. Gass of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Glenn R. Lawrence, Cleveland Heights, O.; Mrs. Elbert Charity, widow of Elbert Charity, LLB 11 (Natl.), LLM 12 (Natl.). Mrs. Charity contributed his books to National Law Library; Frank E. Barrows, LLB 11 (Natl.), member of Penni, Edmonds, Morton, Barrows and Taylor, Counsellors at Law, New York City; Mrs. Barrows; Henry J. Walther and Mrs. Walther, AB and TD 11, who was in the Research Dept. of D. C. Public Schools until her retirement in 1936; and University Trustee Frank A. Howard, BS in ME 11, LLB 14, of New York City, formerly President of Standard Oil Development Company. Standing: Dr. Albert Kushner, DVM 11, of Tucson, Ariz.; Glenn R. Lawrence, BS in CE wd, 10, CE 11, structural steel engineer-designer of Cleveland Heights, O.; Arnold Clarence Otto, AB 11, LLB 13, attorney with firm of Otto and Bird, Milwaukee, Wisc.; Mrs. Richard W. Hynson (Ethel Marguerite Weller) AB wd 11, whose late husband also attended GW (AB wd 11); and Hermon H. Hill, LLB 11, attorney, Treasury Department, Silver Spring, Md.

with the Alumni

1930-1939

LESTER A. BARNETT, AB, 36, MD 39, now Director of the Department of Surgery, Monmouth Medical Center, Long Branch, N. J., has been appointed Associate in Surgery, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine.

FRANK C. HALE, LLB 33, has been appointed to the newly-created post of Program Review Officer, Federal Trade Commission.

J. DALLAS SHIRLEY, BS 36, AM 45, is now in Tripoli and Lybia, North Africa, on a ten-month leave from his position as Principal of the Gordon Junior High School, Washington, D. C. He is working in the State Department's exchange program as a consultant and adviser in the fields of education and physical education.

THOMAS R. VAUGHAN, LLB 35, has been elected a member of the Board of Directors of Freeport Sulphur Company, New York City, N. Y.

1940-1949

ROBERTO DE OLIVIERO CAMPOS, AM 47, was named Brazilian Ambassador to the United States, this fall. Ambassador Campos served as Secretary in the Washington Embassy during the 1930's.

HENRY CARTER, LLB 41, an Alexandria, Va. attorney, and a former diplomat and government consultant, died of a heart ailment October 27. He is survived by his wife, Mary; a daughter, Eleanor; and a son, Henry, studying at Washington Lee Law School.

JOHN T. WILSON, AB 41, in September assumed a new position as special assistant to the Chancellor of the University of Chicago and also received an appointment at Chicago University as professor of psychology. Professor Wilson is a former GWU lecturer in psychology and more recently served as Assistant Director for Biological and Medical Sciences at the National Science Foundation.

1950-1959

MELISSA DEMENT BOLTON, AB 51, first vice president of the Federated Garden Clubs of Maryland, Inc., died October 25. She is survived by her husband, Frank, and a son, Richard, of Pomonkey, Md.

SHELDON S. COHEN, AB 50, JD (wd) 52, attorney with Arnold, Fortas & Porter, Washington, D. C., gave a lecture on "Taxation of Small Business Corporations" at the annual New York University Institute on Federal Taxation in November.

ELIZABETH STRACHAN FRERET, LLB (wd) 50, of the Washington Law Firm of Sharp & Bogan has been named tax counsel and assistant general counsel of C-E-I-R, Inc., New York City, N. Y.

GEORGE E. HUTCHINSON, AB 51, LLB 54, Supreme Court Crier, was recently admitted to practice before the high court which he has served in various roles since he was 15 years of age.

JOHN C. MERWIN, LLB 55, was named Assistant Trust Officer of National Savings & Trust Company, Washington, D. C.

PHILIP A. RIDGELY, AB 58, Manager—Advertising and Public Relations of the Water Pollution Control Federation, Washington, D. C., presented a paper on the subject of public relations at the 34th annual meeting of the W.P.C.F. in Milwaukee.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY CLASS REUNION

MEMBERS OF THE SILVER JUBILEE CLASS OF 1936 and their guests enjoyed a dinner together at the Statler Hotel, Homecoming weekend. Reading clockwise, they are: James V. Day, Charles M. Baruch, and Mrs. Day—all of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Baruch (Mildred C.) AB 36; Mrs. Dora M. Ihle, AB 35, AM 36, Washington, D. C.; Thomas E. Berry, BS 36 Takoma Park, Md.; Mrs. Berry; Susan O. Futterer, AB in LS wd 36, Washington, D. C.; J. Edgar Nelson, LLB 36, Encino, Calif.; Dr. Alfred J. Suraci, AB 33, MD 36, and Mrs. Suraci of Washington. Other members of the Silver Anniversary Class who were seated at other tables brought the total representation to 42 members.

1960-1961

ELIZABETH RUGGLES CHICHESTER, BS 60, is the recipient of a scholarship to the Graduate School of Education, University of Chicago. She will become a candidate for the Master of Arts in Teaching: Biology.

JOHN K. UULKEMA, LLB 61, has been appointed to the professional staff of the Shell Development Company at its Emeryville, Calif., Research Center.

MELVIN P. WILLIAMS, LLB 61, has been promoted to Patent Agent and transferred from the IBM Washington Patent Operations to IBM Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Patent Operations.

There are many methods of making a gift to your University. Have you considered the possibility of providing for The George Washington University in your will? As an alumnus, you may have a special interest in a particular academic program or in scholarships. A provision for the University in your will is a means of insuring the growth of that portion of the University's program which is of personal interest to you.

For information concerning the Wills, Bequests and Gifts Program, write to the Development Division of The George Washington University, 2000 H Street, N. W., Washington 6, D. C.

With Our GW Authors

(Continued from Page 4)

Dr. W. H. Marlow, Senior Staff Scientist, Logistics Research Project (Navy) — Some Accomplishments of Logistics Research: Naval Research Logistics Quarterly, Wash., D. C. Dec. 1960.

Stedman B. Noble, Research Scientist, Logistics Research Project (Navy) — Some Flow Models of Production Constraints: Naval Research Logistics Quarterly, Dec. 1960.

Dr. Thomas M. Peery, Professor of Pathology and Dr. Frank N. Miller, Jr., Assistant Professor of Pathology — Pathology: A Dynamic Introduction to Medicine and Surgery: Little, Brown and Co., Boston, 1960.

Dr. William F. Sager, Professor of Chemistry, co-author with Calvin D. Ritchie of The Interrelation of Reaction and Substituent Constants and the Role of Electronegativity in Linear Free Energy or Enthalpy Relationships: Journal of the American Chemical Society, N. Y., Aug. 1961.

Barbara T. Shugart, AB 52 — A Secret by Wendy — a photo story about the author's cat, Wendy: Bruce Humphries, Inc., Boston, 1961.

Medics of '51 Hold Class Reunion

Combining social pleasures with serious consideration of scientific topics, the Medical Alumni Class of 1951 held a two-day reunion in Washington in October.

President of the Medical Alumni Association Dr. Alfred Brigulio reports that about sixty alumni from eleven different states and the District of Columbia attended the functions.

Opening events were a reception and buffet on Friday, October 6. The next morning, class members met for a symposium of five medical lectures. Then, after having lunch together, the class of '51 made a chartered bus trip to the Dedication Game at the new D. C. Stadium, where they watched the Colonials trounce VMI 30 to 6.

The reunion closed with a banquet. Subject of the principal speech, delivered by Dr. John Parks, was "Fifty-one Plus Ten."

Placement Office Lists Openings

Alumni experienced in professional fields, who are seeking relocation, may contact the Placement Office in regard to the following recent listings:

Lawyer to serve as legal counsel for professional rights and responsibilities of a national organization. Salary — $10,000-$13,000. Location — Washington, D. C.

Key positions on research project in community development and municipal government. Requirements: background and interest in community development, adult education methodology, writing-organization skills, and administrative-supervisory skills. Salary — open. Location — Chicago.

Associate lawyer for international tax service — one to two years' duration. Duties: write and edit tax journal and other publications, prepare reports for American clients, extensive research. Should have deep interest in international trade and investment, completion of basic course in U. S. income tax and advanced course in corporate taxation, high standing in class, previous editorial work, reading knowledge of German and French helpful. Salary—open. Location—Amsterdam, Netherlands.

THE NEWSLETTER is published in the interest of The George Washington University and its alumni.

J. Frank Doubleday, President
General Alumni Association
Stanley J. Tracy, Alumni Secretary
Doris Wigglesworth, Editor Washington, D. C.

U.S. INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURN-1040

FORM 1040
U.S. Treasury Department
Internal Revenue Service

PLEASE
PRINT
OR TYPE

First name and initial

Last name

Home address

(Number and street or rural route)
(P. S. A. zone number)

Wife's Social Security Number

Your Social Security Number

- 1 Check blocks which apply:
Check for wife only if all of her income is included in this return, or if he had no income in, or if he was a dependent, give address if different from yours.
- 2 List first names of your child, in whole or in part, who qualify as dependent, give address if different from yours.
- 3 Enter number of exemptions claimed for other persons listed at top of page 2.
- 4 Enter the total number of exemptions claimed on lines 1, 2, and 3.
- 5 Enter all wages, salaries, bonuses, commissions, tips, and other compensation before payroll deductions, less excess of expenses, account or similar allowance paid by your employer over your ordinary and necessary business expenses.
Where Employed (City and State)

The 1961 Alumni Fund Drive ends on December 31, 1961. Have you made your contribution to this year's Fund? It takes only a few minutes to write a check made payable to The George Washington University.

Mail your contribution to the Alumni Fund Office
2000 H Street, N.W.
Washington 6, D. C.

Your contribution is a legitimate deduction

when computing your income tax, and you will receive an official University receipt for your records.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY NEWSLETTER

Published by the Alumni Office
The George Washington University
2000 H Street, N. W.
Washington 6, D. C.

NON-PROFIT ORG.
U. S. POSTAGE
PAID
WASHINGTON, D. C.
PERMIT NO. 593